PUBLISHED EVERY DAY.

DEMOCRAT PUBLISHING COMPANY Publishers and Proprietors.

> OFFICE OF PUBLICATIONS Corner of Rusk and Fifth Streets.

STRRED AT THE FORT WORTH, TRYAS, POST-OFFICE AS SECOND-CLASS MAIL MATTER.

OBEGON premises to be a good state to ive in after awhile. They elected a Semogratic governor out there a day or wo ngo.

REED was renominated for congress in the First district in Maine Thursday. That edict of his against "cold tea" in the house was very timely, indeed.

A COFFIN trust is the latest. Having added to the cost of living, the trusts attempt to restore the equilibrium by making death as expensive as possible.

COMMERCIALLY, improvements that will secure to a town water rates in freight is a good move; but financially, eanal digging is an expensive pastime.

Ir is very unpleasant, to be sure, but a lively sense of duty compels us to say that the tariff wings of the administration party are not flopping in harmony.

THE public is glad to hear that Walt Whitman has reached his seventy-first year, and expresses the hope that the old gentleman will seek to prolong his life for many years to come by writing no more postry.

THE Texas anti-commissionist is simply threshing old straw in talking about 'personal liberty.'' That argument has been diligently but vainly worked in other states. It is not worth a row of pms. Try something else.

THE senate refused even to sanction Senator Blair's resolution asking England to disarm. No matter. The old gentleman is liable to introduce another resolution next week asking the sultan to dismiss all his wives but one. When a good man sails in to purify the world, it is very hard to discourage him.

THE rather sudden death recently of a young lady at New Orleans was attributed to a dish of los cream of which she had just been eating. This item will impress the average young man with pecutiar force and significance.

THE city of Los Angeles, Cal., has adopted the plan of dividing up its taxes, one-half to be paid in November and the other in July. Booming without backing and fletitious values make tax paying a heavy burden to an honest citizen.

THE recent massacre in Wyoming territory by the Cheyennes of Mr. Holt and others of the government survey, and the outrages in Arizona by the Apaches, give added force to Mark Twain's opinion that a good Indian was a dead

A POLICEMAN in New York swore in open court that he was a tectotaler and had never tasted liquor. He did not say how he came to be on the New York force, and one can only surmise that marvels will never cease. miracles vet happen.

THE tailors union of London numbers over a hundred thousand members, and is increasing daily by the addition to the membership of those known as under hands. Counting them by nines even, the number would be formidable in the strike that is threatened.

"DIGNIFIED silence is the thing." It is fast making Quay whole again. He is acquiring such authority and prestige of late in party councils that we shall not be surprised to hear before long that he has procured a letter from the president indorsing him as a patriot and states, DIBD.

In the greater part of the newspapers, magazines and other periodicals of the country are Democratic, as Mr. Clarkson says, it follows that a like majority of the people are of a similar way of fulnking. People don't buy and read as a steady diet, papers whose politics they despise.

THE young duke of Orleans has been liberated, and will soon go to London for the coming season. Having found by experience that the only use to which France cares to put him is to test the strength and security of her bastlles and prisons, he will probably give her a wide berth hereafter.

Miss Ing. & Warson of Texas won the medal for scholarship given at Dr. Price's college, Nashville, Miss Watson is one of a class that has beaten all past record, having made in three years 535 stars, a star indicating five perfect consecutive grades made by a single pupil in any department.

MR. PORTER is superintendent of census returns, but who superintends Mr. Porter is not known. A committee in Martin Van Buren's time visited the White House to count the spoons, and it als pertineutly asked who would count knapoons after the committee. Superfor wing the superintendent might be wanted mecessary.

fore Vil-nfederate fing is not nearly so She told Lo the prosperity of the Union him to te. to get it backerd and men of his tik Didn't you e world believe. Thou-ing to do with th never saw the flag, He told me he hose who fought under him have it with thas was proven notbe cared for and reaging for Jefferson ways been a man of h got it about 9 o'clock it was wrapped is not likely to and sheet, and the blac. clay. A new the leaders of the g. o. p. assured the complication has arisen in Kemmler's case. It has been discovered that there is an uncertainty as to whose duty it is to touch the fatal button, and two weeks further is required to decide whether it shall be the warden of the Auburn prison or the shariff of the county.

THERE is a strong sentiment prevailing at Harvard that it would be wise to shorten the course from four years to three. The recommendation comes from President Eliot, and it seems likely that a compromise will be effected with the four-year men which will allow a conferring of the degree of B. A. at the completion of sixteen courses. A hard worker can do this in three years.

SECRETARY NOBLE, denying that he would resign to become a railroad attorney, emphasized his strong sense of duty to his country by saying that "when I leave this place it will not be because somebody has offered me a bigger price than the government." That is very grand, indeed, but it would be interesting to know what Mathew Stanley Quay thinks of the granduer of that sentiment.

RIVERSIDE, Cal., is to have for the first time in its history a saloon. It took a rich man to start it. He had to pay a license tax of $2000 a year and enter into a heavy bond not to sell liquor to drunkards or minors, or within 100 feet of any public building, and to close at 10 o'clock at night. The conditions almost amount to prohibition, 10 o'clock is early for a nightcap, and drunkards are apt to be the saloons best customers.

THE Republican managers and spoilsmen, feeling that the tariff is doomed, are working the old thing for all that is in it. If a sufficient number of reformers like Plumb can be got to vote with the Democrats in the senate against the McKinley bill, the Quay-Reed-Dudely-Clarkson gang of looters may yet be knocked out, and their abomination bill be side tracked for this term of congress at is largely a question of grit in a few Republican senators

Bunting beer glasses at a census enumerator and making life such a burden for another that he suicided at the close of his first day's work, furnish the country with most edifying examples of the respect and veneration cherished by the loyal people of the North for your Uncle Samuel, his power and authority, Contrast such exhibitions of active patriotism and feeling with the display of a tattered Confederate flag in the South, if you would know what true loyalty is.

REED's peculiar tactics as managerin-chief of the house Republicans have become so familiar to the Democrats that they can foretell what radical or outlandish partisan measure he contemplates springing on the house next. whenever he decides to unseat another Democrat. For instance, the ousting of Turnin of Alabama this week is taken to mean early action on the Federal election bill, for which the boss is strengthening his lines, which appear doubtful and weak.

A WASHINGTON correspondent undertaking a comparative analysis of the various degrees of assauluity prevalent among congressmen, awards the first place to Boutelle of Maine, whom he dubs "the supreme ass of the house," excepting Kelly of Kansas. This way of grading those gentlemen is not as clear as it might be, leaving as it does their relative status as to assaninity a trifle clouded. Perhaps it was this difficulty that caused the writer to pursue the matter no further.

WHETHER from previous newspaper for reverse situations. From slum to pulpit, from Methodist exhorting to of a female college in Utah, the transition seems alike easy, and with as little effort he may yet run successfully an establishment of the muchly-married at

THE public should treat the census enumerator with courtesy and consideration. Every man and woman catechised should answer promptly and cheerfully. The task, at best, is a most ungracious one. Every enumerator earns his wages twice over. If he doe, not find Jordan a hard road to travel, no one does. Treat him well and thus help him along. He is not to blame for the style of catechism which he rehearses for you. If you object to answering certain impertment queries, do so politely, and you will not suffer for it.

HARRISON refused to kiss another baby at Pittsburg the other day, and some silly chroniclers are finding fault with him for it. They should remember that he always wore gloves when he went electioneering among the people of Indiana, being unwilling to trust his bare band in the paw of a Hoosier. Until some ingenious fellow shall invent a suitable mouth protector, it is unreasonable to expect a gentleman of such exquisite manners and taste to indulge promiseuous osculation of infants while charged with the care of 65,000,000 of people, including Baby McKee.

WHAT stupid fellows those 1400 importers from New York, Philadelphia, Boston, Cincinnati and Chicago must be who went to Washington to protest against the McKinley bill. Have not the framers and sponsors of that bill declared that "the tariff cheapens everything it touches," and that the prime object of the present bill is to "reduce the revenue, ' and therefore lighten the burden of taxation? Besides bave not importers with damuable iteration, that not they, but the foreign shipper paid the tariff duties? The farmers of the West who elected Harrison could give these pretentious importers pointers on the tariff.

THE catalogue of the Austin school of theology at Austin, Tex., for 1889-1890, shows that the curriculum of the school embraces all that is taught in older schools. While it is under Presbyterian control, the avowed purpose is to direct the labor of teachers and students to Scriptural truth and make the course available to all Christian young men. The connection of this school with the atms university is such that students wishing to perfect themselves in other studies can do so. The school labors under the embarrassments incidental to a beginning in a new field, and there is a great need for an endowment fund large enough to place the institution on the plane with older schools in other states.

No one will be more surprised than Russell Harrison himself to learn "that by his courage and presence of mind an appailing disaster was averted at Fort Worth on Friday night." It is no detraction to him to repeat what he himself said, that any man would have done all be did and there were many in the building who did incomparably more. He was cool and spoke calmly to those around him, and in this way alded others in preventing a disastrous panic. Mr. Harrison's modest demeanor and marked avoidance of notorlety inspired a respect for him that requires no fletitions nonsense to uphold. A president's ton or wife may do a manly, womanly and wifely act with the same grace as those who are less prominent.

A CENSUS COMPLAINT. A GAZETTE correspondent informs us that there is much dissatisfaction in Cherokee county over the plan of taking the census in a district adjacent to the town of Rusk. The enumerator in that district, it seems, is "'a feeble old man' whose territory comprises 240 square miles, or twice the area covered by two enumerators at the last census. Sensible that he could not perform the impossible task imposed upon him, the enumerator advised the supervisor by letter of that fact, and received for answer the somewhat airy and complaisant instruction to go ahead and do the best he could, and that he need have no fears about missing some, as there was no penalty for such failure. Justly indignant at such trifling with an important matter, the people of that district have reported the situation to the authorities at Washington, and asked to have the census taken in a proper manner. There is also said to be a whole justice's precinct in that county, for which no enumerator young or old has been ap ointed. Such a queer situation as this in Cherokee arouses the suspicion that similar conditions may exist elsewhere in the state, and that there is an evident purpose on the part of somebody to deal unfairly in the census matter, especially in Southern states. The attitude of Supervisor Pell in Cherokee county, who informed the enumer. ator that he would incur no penalty for failure to enumerate all within his district, strengthens the suspicion, if it does not confirm belief in a wicked purpose to keep down the census enumeration. Whether intentional or not, the situation down there is outrageously unfair and unjust to a thriving and prosperous community, and the supervisor responsible for it deserves to be decapitated without delay and a fairer man put in his place. It is the duty of Superintendent Porter to see that this be done at once, and that training or from a natural absence of a fair and honest count of the inhabitants bone structure in his mental make-up, be taken. Whether he does so or not, Sam Small shows a wonderful aptitude | will decide the justice or injustice of the complaint preferred against his appointment when first made, that it was done campaign hustling, from the chancel of in the interest of the party, whose politthe Episcopal church to the presidency | ical ends he might be relied upon to serve in taking the census, and that therefore he was an unfit person with whom to intrust so important and farreaching a power. The interests involved do not stop at a mere failure to count all the inhabitants. A variety of facts and data are to be gathered which point out and emphasize the growth, morally, industrially and physically, of communities as well as states. Unless this work be done in accordance with law, how can Commissioner Porter free himself from charges that ought to consign any man to political perdition.

No Such Word as Fall.

Gainesville Herald. Fort Worth has had every kind of a convention from a synod of bishops to the anti-prohibition rally and still is not satisfied. She is now negotiating for a prize fight between America's champion exponent of the brutal art and a lesser light of the same persuasion. The Fort numbers in her bright lexicon no such word as fail and will, therefore, have the fight.

Devoted to Texas.

Springtown Newsdealer. The Fort Worth GAZETTE is a fair paper all around. No petty prejudices govern its action. Every man has showing in its columns where the interest of the public is to be advanced. It is enterprising and progressive and devoted to Texas and her development.

Rockwall News. Words of sympathy cannot make good the loss sustained by Texas in the destruction of the Spring Palace. Let all Texas show in a substantial manner how much so great a loss is regretted. Fort Worth has twice borne the burden and Texas has reaped. Now let Texas pay.

A Serious Mishap.

Wichita Eagle. The burning of the Spring Palace at Fort Worth, Tex., last Friday night, was a serious and lamentable mishap. Still it was fortunate that it did not one cur until the eve of the close of the season. As it was all who desired to visit it had done so, and both the enterprise and the city had already received all the benefit the exposition could afford. The Spring Palace has been a big thing for Worth. The city has made the most, in a substantial and business way, of the notoriety the novel enterprise gave it from the beginning nearly two years, ago, and while the estimated loss of $100,000 as a result of the fire is in a sense a heavy one, it is still but trifling as compared to the immense benefit it has been to the city of Fort Worth and that portion of the state.

INVOCATION.

Inscribed in Sympathy to the Sufferers by the Burning of the Spring Palace. BY CARRIE L. POST.

Comforter Holy, with soft careases,
Wipe away tears and assuage all their grief;
Angels, who minister in earth's distresses,
Place underneath thine arm of relief;
Fingers of healing, touch the sore fracture,
Enit all anew by Thy word, "Be thou whole.
Show Thyself to them, and help to endure
The days all so weary in patience of soul.

Whisper sweet splace, give healing balm, Pillow weak neads, and sooth throbbing nerve, Let Thine assurance dispel all alarm, Tell them though waiting, still they may Serve their dear Christ, who also was broken-Serve Him as witness of His great power, Cheer them when fainting, give them some

Of grace all-sufficient for each trial hour. Angel of patience, tenderly hover
Over the helpless, wounder and sore,
Songs of sweet comfort over and over
Sing till the night of suffering is e'er;
Bea light to their eyes, a psalm to their soul
A "Presence," untailing, recealing thy love, A "Presence," unfailing, revealing thy love Till joy like a river over them roll and peace brood anew like a heavenly dove. Fort Worth, Tex., June, 1839.

IN MEMORY OF AL HAYNE,

SHAWMUF. He lies not in the abvey's shade, Where rest proud England's dead, Whose mighty deeds gave guarantee That Westminster should shed

Its glory on his name, who carned The right by might of arm To be entombed with men of war, Who lived to work man harm

Nor yet once hoped the light would fall. As't falls on sculptures there, And shed a luster on his name In th corner poet's share, Nor dreamed that grateful thousands would Shed tears around his grave. And honor him as one who died Unsellish, true and brave. Proud England has her noble dead Without her 'Minster's walls, Whose deeds her minstrels oft have sung In cot, and palace halls.

But none among them honors more The land that gave him birth, Than he who gave the gift of life To strangers to his worth.

Who scorned the devastating flames That raged on ev'ry side, o reacue strangers from the fate He fearless met—and died.

SPRING PALACE HEROISM.

BY MRS. ELIZABETH O. DANNELLY. Dedicated to the noble men and women who isked their lives in rescuing others from the errible flames.]

"Man's inhumanity to msn,"

How oft it is deplored!
How oft is human misery
By selfish hearts ignored!
How few observe the "golden rule,"
Its teachings so sublime!
How few record heroic deeds
Upon the scroll of time.

And yet there are some noble souls Of more exalted birth; Unselfish spirits, kind and pure. Born but to bless the earth; Born but to bless the earth; Courageous men and women true. With hearts sincere and brave, Who even sacrifice their lives Their fellowmen to save.

All honor to these noble ones, Who faced the raging flames. To rescue wives and helpiess babes. Though now unknown their names, Unnumbered blessings are invoked Throughout our "Lone Star state." Throughout our "Lone Star state,"
And thankful lips pronounced them each Magnamimous and great. The mother draws her rescued babe Still closer to her breast, And watchful angels hovering near In heaven record the rest. The 'Palace' lies in ashes gray,

But from its ruins rise
The incense from heroic deeds
Ascending to the skies. The beauteous work of skill and art, With all its valued store, Like other human structures grand, Will feast our pride no more; But from our "Palace," fitly named, But from our Palace, Will rise eternal spring,

Her laurels will she bring. Waxahachie, May 31, 1890. -[Dallas News.

SHIP BUILDERS.

Crump & Sons Increase Their Capital Stock-Will Compete With the World-Special to the Garette.

New York, June 7 .- William M. Crump & Sons, large ship builders of Philadelphia, it is just learned have taken advantage of the new law permitting ship builders to increase their capital stock to $5,000,000 a company. In order to do this a company will be obliged to resolve itself into a corporation. At present the intention is to increase its capital to $3,500,000 only, and if is found advisable it can be raised to the full limit of 5,000,000. Among the large subscribers to the new stock are J. & W. Seligman, bankers in this city; Thomas Dolan, president and large woolen manufacturer of Philadelphia, and an important steamship company of the same city. Seligman to-day said it was Crump & Sons who were increasing their stock, and he was one subscriber. He fald: "Our plans have not been completed yet. Next week we will be in a position to speak, and we will give full particulars about them. I will say, however, that Crump will still remain in control of the yard under the new plans, and mercantile and naval vessels will still be built, but we will also bid for the construction of ships for other nations, and we intend to compete with the ship building firms of the world. "

MUCH MARRIED MIKE.

Michael Byan has a Hearing Before Justice Spann, Charged with Bigamy-

Special to the Gazette. GALVESTON, TEX., June 7. - Michael Ryan had a hearing before Justice Spann on a charge of oigamy. The charge was preferred by Margare Ryan, who stated she was married to Mike in Kingston, Canada, in 1887, and produced a cerkingson, canada, it is a short time they removed to this city. About a short time they removed to this city. About a year ago Mike claimed he had a year ago Mike claimed he had fallen heir to property and money in Canada, and left the unsuspecting wife for the purpose of securing the legacy, upon which he was to return. This he never did, and the wife was left to hustle alone for herself and children. A short time since Mrs. Ryan was in Fort Worth and incidentally learned that her recent husband was working in a bridge gang at Virginia Point. She went there, found her hasband living with wife No. 1, whom he married last December. Wife No. 1 caused his great for bigamy. Hearing was continued into the last of the same only site; with the Sunday Gazarra only site. tificate to that effect. After living in Canada

BEALTY AND BUILDING.

Activity in Fort Worth Real Estate Continues Unabated.

Something about the New Buildings to go up in Fort Worth-Bright Hotel Prospects Flattering Outlook

FORT WORTH BRAL ESTATE.

No city in Texas has ever approximated the amount of sales of real estate made in Fort Worth since January 1 in the same length of time. Up to date the sales this year amount to about $11,000,-000. It is a usual thing for sales to drop off in June, but such is not the case in Fort Worth this year; on the contrary, real estate is active, as the record of There is transfers since June 1 shows. every reason to believe that June, July and August will show good sales and that there will be no dull senson this year.

TANK CLEARINGS. Contrary to expectations the bank clearings continue to show a good increase each week, evidencing the fact that Fort Worth's trade continues to The following are the clearings of Fort Worth banking house for periods Clearings for week endmentioned: ing June 7, 1890: $2,116,752.68. Same time in 1889, $1,208,936.92. Respectfully, E. B. HARROLD, Mausger. Per cent, increase for week ending June 7, 1890, 75.1. HOTEL PROSPECTS.

There are bright prospec's now for Fort Worth to get a magnificent hotel. W. A. Huffman has offered the south half of the block between Main and Rusk and Eighth and Ninth streets for $80,000, and agrees to give $15,000 of the bonus, while Mrs. Hendricks agrees to give $10,000; Casey & Swasey, $7500; T. J. & George L. Hurley, $5000; Caswell Bros., $5000; and other amounts making the total about $55,000. The committee having the hotel project in charge will mush the matter for all it is worth, and if met in a liberal spirit by the property owners who will be benefited so greatly hope to have the total $80,000 secured in a short time. It may be necessary to add a few thousands to this amount. If the hotel is built on the proposed location it will front south 200 feet on Ninth street, 100 feet on Main street and 100 feet on Rusk street. With nostreet car line on Rusk street and with none ever permitted to go there, it would give carriages, horses, etc., free access to the hotel without without access to the hotel without hindrance, while the two principal car lines would not be over a block away. It certainly does appear probable that the hotel enterprise will soon be settled. Those like the Caswells and Hurleys, who have waived their personal interests in this matter, deserve credit for their ratriotism, but they see that a grand hotel will benefit the entire city. It should not take many days of the present week to close the hotel project. A letter has already been sent to the Chicago gentlemen telling them of the proposition made for the new location. NEW BUILDINGS.

The saw, the hammer, the trowel, the mallet and the chisel will make sweet music in Fort Worth this summer and all fall and winter. Let the people of Fort Worth and Texas look at this list of new buildings to go up and then cast about for a parallel in the history of Texas

In two weeks work will begin on 100 feet front on Main and Twelfth streets, West Side. This building will be iron and brick, two stories, and will cost W. A. Huffman builder. $20,000. W. A. Huffman builder. R. E. Maddox will tear away the one-story bricks north of the Bateman building and in their places erect a building 75x200 feet from Main to Rusk streets, three stories high, of iron and brick. This building will cost $6 A splendid stone and pressed brick building, 100 feet front on Main and 100 feet on Seventh, will be built. It will be four stories high, will be modern in every particular, and will cost $110,000. A.T. Byers will erect a six-story stone, 50x95 feet, on the corner of Main and Seventh, opposite the Hurley office

It will be a magnificent building. structure, and will cost over $100,000. Hyde Jennings has given notice to those occupying the two lots north of the Hurley office building to vacate as he wishes to erect a three-story 50x95 stone front, at a cost of about $35,000. Work will begin at once on a stone front two-story building fronting fifty feet on Houston, west side, between Seventh and Eighth, to be erected by Mrs. Jesephine Ryan and J. V. French at a cost of $20,000.

Plans are being prepared for a building fifty feet front to eighty upon Hous-

This is a grand total of 475 feet front which will be increased in the near future. If the Grand hotel is built it will run it up to 675 feet front. Add to this the Hurley office building fifty feet, the Martin-Brown building fifty feet and the grand total of fine buildings which will be in course of construction at one time will be 775 feet front. This, with ave stone churches (counting St. Andrews), a six-story packery, a cotton mill, a rolling mill, a chair factory and wagon works and it will be seen that Fort Worth will enjoy unprecedented prosperity during the summer.

WANT TO COME HERE. The chamber of commerce has received a letter from a rich Minneapolis prewing company expressing a desire to come to Fort Worth and locate. An answer has been sent to the concern by Mr. T. J. Hurley, chairman of the committee having these matters in charge, and something will be learned in a few days in regard to the company's de-Mr. Hurley yesterday also responded to a proposition from a Philadelphis concern, which desires to come to Fort Worth with a shade and blind factory, employing 125 hands. NOTES OF PROGRESS.

The fine residence being built by J. Y. Hogsett on Lamar and Fourth is nearing completion.

Col. C. H. Highes is building a fine esidence corner Burnett and Fourth streets.

J. L. Riedesle of Battle Creek, Iowa. after looking over the country from the summit to the sea came back from the ea to Fort Worth, bought two lots in Fairlawn place, and will build two houses on

A merchant from Louislana has been here looking for a building in which to open a $60,000 stock of goods and go into business. Arrangements will be made so he can get a house by August 1. Mr. I. Carb who is fully informed on the subject stated yesterday that the Dahlman beef contract was a go this time and that it was probable the refrigerator would soon be at work.

buildings of the Dixle wagon factory will be completed in a few weeks now.

The total amount raised for the subsidy to scoure the Gannon brewery is

A magnificent building fronting 100 feet on Main street and fifty feet on Weatherford street is in contemplation. The timbers for the false work for the Riverside street bridge have been hauled on the ground ready to begin work.

RECORDED TRANSFERS Lather f. Bonz to W. J. Bonz, part of of block 8, Daggett's Elser, block 1, Union depot addition..... Edwin E. Fosdick et ux Ben C. Evans et al. part of block 29, Tucker's addition on Leuda and Rusk streets... John W. Wray et ux to W. C. Pfacille, one-half lot 5, block 4,500 00 Hirshfield's addition....

 B. Smith et al. to J. M. 3. Hirshfield's addition. Scott, lot on Jennings avenue and Texas and Pa-

6,000 00 cific railway tracks ..... S. A. Mabry to W. H. Mabry, one-half of block 10, Jennings' south addition ...... Elizabeth Reeves to J. A. Reeves et al., 160 acres, M. Lynch survey ..... Fort Worth woolen milis company to Owen McGowen, lots 27 and 28, block 16, woolen pany to J. H. White, lots 20 and 21 in block 12, woolen drews and wife, lots 5 and 6, block 2, Moodle's sub-di-vision, blocks 22 and 28, Welch survey .....

David Jamuson to Thomas Roche, one-fourth of block 88 on Fourth and Throckmorton w. L. Logan et ux. to M. J. Hennessey, lot 22, block 2, Walcott's addition..... John G. Reily et al. to E. L.

Berry, part of block 5, Field-Weich addition. ..... J. P. Nicks to E. L. Berry; lots 7 and 8. Tureman's subdivision, block 40, Jenning's south addition Clarence Lee to M. G. Ellis, et al, one-fifth interest in part

C. Martin, Jr., lots 6, 7 and 8 block 1, of block 14 Field's Walter Guinn, lots 1, 2, 3, and 4, block 1 of block 14, Field's addition .....

of Martin Roddy survey and Jobe and Grey surveys..... R. H. McClellan et ux, to R.

Six buyers of lots in the second Woolen Mill addition yesterday were from Com-merce, Texas. The sale is a favorite with outside people, as well as residents of Fort Worth.

Everyone knows where Alamosa Heights is, nearly south and a little east of the hospital. The highest land in the best part of Fort Worth. Now, about getting to and from, remember Alamosa will have a train devoted to the service of the inhabitants, and will pass each way every hour from 6:30 a. m. to 9 p. m. A prime factor in the settling of suburban property is the means of transportation. Inhabitants of Alamosa Heights, both in the factory addition thereto and the other parts, will enjoy better facilities in this respect than any suburb about the city. Only eleven minutes will be required to go or come. The terms and conditions of sa e are as follows: Two hu dred lots are laid out, fifty of these will be given free to be distributed to the subscribers. Every third buyer will draw a pair of lots. Those who buy two lots will have two chances and those who buy three lots will have three Doubtless, some who buy two chances. lots will draw four lots, if they do not get a building.

Everyone gets full value for their money. Fifty-three lucky ones out of 150 lots will secure from twice to fifteen, or twenty times what they pay, dependent on what they draw.

N. B .- This "fifteen or twenty times" statement is based on the probability of the store building costing $1500 to $2000, whereas the proprietors have not yet ascertained its cost and only know it is to be a ''good one,'' 20x100 feet and well finished. Therefore the estimate by figures is only a good close guess. The corporation never make a statement but what the facts will justify Don't forget the terms, and join the

A pair of lets joining, to every third One hundred and fifty lots will be sold, no more, no less, at $100 each, payable $10 per month.

One large worth building will be built on one lor, size 20x100 feet, well built and painted.

One residence, ux rooms, two stories, to con not less than $1000 is located on one los

Two raidences, one story each and three rooms each, cost 500 each, are lo-inted on separate lots. The persons who iraw lots with houses thereon take such houses and lot without further cost. three re onted q draw k house The person who draws the lot con-the large store building takes it t further cost. withd

One lot in every thirty-seven and one-half contains a store building or handsome residence which will be given to the one who draws it. The plan of the drawing is perfect and meets the approval of all. The lot buyers conduct the drawing themselves. Details can be given at the city office of the company, 610 Main street. All houses are well built, handsomely finished in modern style, and artistically painted outside and Photographs of the houses can be seen at the city office of the Woolen mill 610 Main street, where a company, plat of the addition is kept for inspection. The trustee, C. W. Post, has deposited a bond of $10,000 at the Merchant's national bank as a guarantee of faithful performance.

Lots bought in the first sale have peen sold before the drawing at 50 per cent. advance. The managers of Alamosa Heights and the Woolen mill company make money for their patrons. The public drawing will be held at the courthouse on October 27 at 8 p. m. Houston and Texas The railroad are at this writing building a 100-foot depot platform preparatory to a commodious and attractive modern suburban depot for passengers. A train esen way is now run morning and night, which lands passengers to and from in fifteen minutes. Arrangements are completed by the rallroad company to put on a special train on October 1 for this service alone. This train will carry PASSENGERS TO THE CITY IN ELEVEN MIN-UTES The blacksmith and woodworking at a uniform fare of five cents, and will ship company.

start at a proper time in the morning to land passengers at their work at o'eloek Every hour during the day and evening the trains will run for the ac. commodation of passengers, and the service will be quicker and much more pleasant than street cars at the same price. large paper mill will be located A large paper mill will be located adjoining this properly in the fall, and other factories are to follow as fast as practicable.

(Adv.)

Texans Abroad.

Special to the Gazette. New York, June 7 .- C. J. White Dallas, at the Tremont; C. S. Hard and W. C. Winthrop, Fort Worth, E. J. Martin, Texas, at the Normandis: J. Doherty, Texarkana, at the Sweener,

THE LARGEST YET.

The New Hadison Square Carden Amphitheates Will Accommodate 14,000 People-1 Manager's Wish-

Frecial to the Gazette. New York, June 7 .- About fifty persons took in a "'private view" of Madi. son Square garden at 8 o'clock this even. ing. The fortunate individuals who gain the precedence of the general public were mostly representatives of newspapers. "Spaclousness" is certainly the word to use in speaking of the amphithe. ater. It is by all means the largest one in this country. It has soil seats, exclusive of those in 200 boxes, and there is room, sitting and standing, for 14,000 people. It comples about a block, with the exception of comparatively small spaces at Twentysixth street and Madison avenue, and Twenty-seventh street and Madison avenue corner. The main entrance to the amphi-theater is on Fourth avenue, but there are also entrances on other sides. Mormon temple, Salt Lake, Utah, hitherto the largest auditorium in this country, can accommodate $100 per-ple, 5000 less than the amphi-theater. The Chicago auditorium has had but a brief career as the largest amusement house in America. Its 4700 seats now dwindle into insignificance beside this amphitheater's nearly 9000. This amphitheatre will be used for musical and dratical festivals on a grand scale, for balls and political conventions. One of the maungers said to your correspondent it was hoped Cleveland would be renominated for president there in 1892. The music ball at the Twenty-sixth street and Madison avenue corner will seat 2000 people and its uses will be those of classical anh popular concerts. The Theater garden on Twentyseventh street and Madison agenue corner building will seat 1500 people, and is to be devoted to light comedy and light music.

INHUMAN.

Since the Destruction of Longus Point Lunatic Asylum the Patients Have Been Penned in Cattle Sheds-

Special to the Garette.

MONTREAL, P. Q., June 7 .- Alfred Terry, founder of the Protestant insane asylum, tells a harrowing tale of the manner in which unfortunate Longus Point lunaties, who are temperarily housed at the exhibition grounds, are treated. He says, "I have been through slave pens in Southern states when slavery was in existence; I have visited the cattle yards of Chicago, and those of the Grand Trunk and Canadian Pacific railway; all were in my mind preferable to that which met my eyes since the Bre as Longus Point, where hundreds of male and female, young and old, have been penned up in cuttle sheds, stables and outbuildings and left without suffiattendance Owing to this condition of things no less than twenty-three actually perished from hunger and exposure. AUSTIN.

A Full Pardon Granted-Charters Filed-Gen. R. L. Walker Dies at Commbia, Va-Special to the Gazette.

Austin, Tax., June 7.-The last offdial act of Governor Ross this afternoon was to grant full pardon to Pace Me-Cann, convicted in 1885 in Fort Worth of robbery, and sent up for fifteen years. The pardon was issued on the statement of the district judge and district atterney who tried the case, tending to show by subsequent revelations the probability of the innocence of McCann. The following charters were filed today: Central loan and investment company of Waco; capital, $100,000; iscorporators, J. I. Moore and T. F Jones. The Seymour board of trade of Seymour. An old citizen named Taylor died ta-

day. A furious rain with wind from the northeast prevails. A private dispatch was received hers this afternoon from Columbia, Va., announcing the death at that place of Gen. R. L. Walker, who was state superis tendent of construction of the new capitol at Austin. He left here two years ago for his home in Virginia. He cammanded a division in Gen. Lee's army during the war, and stood high in the friendship of that commander.

Continued Rain at San Antonio. Special to the Gazette.

SAN ANTONIO, TEX. June 7.-There has been a steady downpour of rain bers since last night. The rain began falling soon after dark yesterday and it seed settled into a slow, drenching dristie, which hrs insted all day and gives promse of continuing throughout the night. It has been general throughout this fegion, flushing rivers appreciably and setting all smaller streams to raring. Considerable damage has been done to railroad tracks, all trains being sereral hours delayed.

Wouldn't Take Them Back. New York, June 7.—It is reported at the barge offer the Cunard steamship company had apparently involved itself in a difficulty with the Federal sovernment. Yesterday Collector Frank ordered seven Belgian class Clowers who were declared to be contract laborers to be supplied to be contract. inborers to be sent back to Europe on the laborers to be sent back to Europe on the Umbris. They were put on board the morning and started on the vorses ceeded far down the bay the Belgins were transferred to a tug and brought back to the wharf of the barge offer where they remained. The collect waiting an explanation from the strain